Research and Policy Fellowship

The League of United Latin American
Citizens

Serve the Latino Community!

The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), the nation's oldest and largest Latino grassroots civil rights organization, seeks talented and passionate interns to help realize our mission of uplifting and advancing our community.

LULAC's Focus Areas

LULAC fellows focus on three core areas:

- Healthcare access
- Civic engagement
- Technology access

Fellows will also work on issues such as immigration, socioeconomic disparities, and language barriers.

Research and Policy Fellowship Program

The Fellowship Program empowers emerging leaders to take on the most pressing issues facing the Latino community. Fellows gain hands-on experience working with national staff, engaging with partners, and contributing to projects that strengthen our communities.

Fellowship Details

- Commit a minimum of 30 hours per week for 10-16 weeks, with flexible scheduling options
- Based at the LULAC National Office in Washington, D.C. Please note that since these are
- unpaid internships, students will be required to secure either academic credit from their institution and/or an outside stipend

Core Fellowship Roles and Responsibilities

- Conduct in-depth policy research on healthcare access, civic engagement, and technology, addressing intersections with immigration, socioeconomic barriers, and language challenges
- Write and prepare research manuscripts for peer-reviewed publication
- Liaise with Congressional offices and agencies to support LULAC's policy initiatives
- Assist in organizing and presenting research findings at seminars, webinars, and virtual meetings with LULAC council members and stakeholders
- Support grant writing for projects related to LULAC's core focus areas
- Lead 'Teach-in' seminars and attend policy events and hearings in Washington, D.C.
